Whitehall, Nov. 5, 1730.

Whereas it appears upon Oath that a threatning Letter or Paper Writing, was on Friday Night the 30th of October laſt, left upon the Stall belonging to the Shop of Mr. John Newcombe, of the City of Exeter, Druggiſt, and another at the Houſe of Mr. Edward White, within the ſaid City, demanding Money to be put in particular Places deſcribed in the ſaid Letters or Paper Writings; for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons who ſent, or contrived, or directed the ſaid Paper Writings, or either of them, or left them at the Places abovementioned, His Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

Exon, October 31, 1730.

Whereas laſt Night a Paper Writing directed to Mr. Newcombe, was left upon the Stall of his Houſe within the ſaid City, to leave Two Guineas under one of the Casks, or elſe prepare for the worſt, Fire's a dreadful Thing. And another Paper Writing was likewiſe left at the Houſe of Mr. James White, within the ſaid City, requiring to put Five Guineas at a Place therein mentioned, or otherwiſe remember Briſtol and Mr. Packer, our Name is Legion. For the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons who ſent, or contrived, or directed the putting the ſaid Paper Writings, or either of them, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the ſaid City of Exon, do hereby promiſe, that whoever ſhall diſcover ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſo as he or they may be convicted thereof, ſhall, upon ſuch Conviction, receive as a Reward the Sum of Fifty Pounds from the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the ſaid City, to be paid by the Receiver of the ſaid City.

By Order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council.

Carwithen, Town-Clerk.

Windſor Caſtle, Oct. 12, 1730.

Whereas in the Month of September laſt ſeveral Letters were ſent to Mr. George Packer, of the City of Briſtol, Merchant, and one to his Siſters who lived in his Houſe, requiring that a certain Sum of Money ſhould be left in particular Places deſcribed in the ſaid Letters, threatning, if the ſame were not complied with, to murther murther them, and to burn his House, and accordingly on Saturday the 3d of October Instant, about Twelve of the Clock at Night, his said House was set on Fire, and entirely consumed, whereby the Ships at the Key and the whole City were in great Danger of being also set on Fire; and since the burning of the said House, two Letters have been conveyed to the said Mr. Packer, threatning, if he did not leave a larger Sum of Money at a Place appointed, to murther him and his Sisters, to burn every House he should live in, and that the City before it were long, should be all in Flames: For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person concerned in a Crime of so high a Nature, and attended with so much Barbarity and Villany, His Majesty is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to such Person, or to any other Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, payable upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders.

[Price Two Pence.]

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Bristol, October 19, 1730.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bristol, do hereby promise, That whoever shall discover the Person or Persons who sent, or contrived or directed the sending the said Letters, or any of them, or was or were concerned in setting Fire to the said House, or sent, contrived or directed the sending any Letter or Letters since the burning the said House, to the said Mr. Packer or others, demanding Money as aforesaid, so as he or they may be convicted thereof, shall, upon such Conviction, receive as a Reward the Sum of TWO Hundred Pounds of the said City, to be paid by the Chamberlain of the said City, over and above all Rewards already offered. By Order of the Court, Blaake, Town-Clerk.

Whereas the Court of Directors of the United East India Company having received the 4th Instant an anonymous Letter dated the 2d, signed A. B, do hereby give Notice, That if the Person who wrote the same will appear to the said Court, or any of the Directors thereof, and make out what is thereby alledged, shall have all fitting Encouragement for so doing, and (if desired) his Name shall be concealed.
